

JUNIOR Sales Manager

INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

- develop your networking and acquisition skills by getting in contact with interesting promoters and clubs from around the globe
- search for new possible clubs and partners matching our vision of electronic underground music events
- enjoy advice and sales in a self-responsible, goal-oriented way of working
- cowork in a friendly, openminded team in Berlin
- become a master of negotiations & bookings by representation of our artists and roster

YOUR PROFILE

- high interest and awareness of electronic underground music scene
- identification with our project, artist and mission
- you're looking for a mandatory internship within the scope of your studies
- at the best studies of music-management, business administration or comparable studies
- you have the capacity of a full time internship (part time possible on request)
- excellent communication skills
- fluent in spoken and written English, German is a plus
- knowledge of the MS Office
- you're kind, creative and willing to take a high degree of personal responsibility while supporting our mission

OUR MISSION

We at OECUS are a former collective of artists based in Berlin which co-works together as a label, booking agency and hosts underground events. Every week we release exclusive podcast's series featuring the best underground techno artists from around the globe. Our objective is to create a unique experience supported by emerging artists following this movement and represent them organising events and promote their music.

We are looking forward to applications from students of any nationality and gender.
Send us your application letter with CV and letter of motivation as PDF via email to:

oecus.info@gmail.com